Speakers

Mother Mary Maximilian

Mother Mary Maximilian is the Mother General of the Daughters of Mary, Mother of Healing Love from Manchester, NH. She entered religious life at the age of 19 and cared for children and families in crisis at St. Charles Children's Home for 35 years. She earned her bachelor's degree in Trauma and Recovery in Children from Granite State College. From May 17 to July 21, 2024, Mother Mary Maximilian traveled with the Seton Route caravan which processed 1,200 miles with the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus Christ from New Haven, CT to Indianapolis, IN in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage and Congress. Paula Umaña

Paula Umaña, a former tennis champion born in Costa Rica, now resides in Atlanta with her husband, Serge, and their five children. Fluent in English, Spanish, and French, she manages her own tennis business. Despite facing a paralyzing neurological condition in 2015, she embraces her role as a Catholic speaker, finding purpose through her ministry, "Gifts of Hope." She speaks at churches, schools, corporations, conferences, and media outlets like EWTN, Univision, and the FORMED platform. Paula was honored to speak to 60,000 attendees at the National Eucharistic Congress this past summer, the largest Catholic event of the century. Amid her disability, she authored 40 Gifts of Hope, a practical guide for those facing suffering, supported by Archbishop Rev. Gregory Hartmayer. Subscribe to receive hope at paulaspeaker.com.

Elza Spaedy

Elza grew up in Brazil in a large family of seven brothers and three sisters. Since finding healing and restoration from the painful childhood trauma of sexual abuse, Elza has been on fire for the Lord, ready to let Him use her and her story to help heal others. Elza is the author of three books – Freedom Through Christ; Healed and Restored; and Spiritual Mentoring, as well as a retreat leader. Elza founded "Healed and Restored" over four years ago – a non-profit ministry that helps women heal from all types of trauma and assault. Elza loves to entertain and enjoys preparing and sharing a great meal with family and friends. She lives with her family in Charlotte, NC. Find out more about her at healedandrestored.org.
